Faithful with a Little

What are the little things you have?
What are the little things you are faithful with?

The Master said to his servant, "Well done thou good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little ..."

Interestingly the Master doesn't credit the servant for changing the world. Instead he points to the servant's faithfulness over a little. God doesn't lay the responsibility for changing the whole world upon our shoulders. Rather we are called to our little piece of it. We are called to be faithful to what he has given. So maybe today is a good time to take a little inventory. Take time to make a few lists. Write down some of your gifts and abilities. Some will be more common, and some may be unique to you. Write down your physical belongings. What has God given you to care for, make use of, and to share. Write down your different relationships. What friends, family, co-workers, fellow students etc. make up your circle of relationships, and your inner circle? You can make more lists of what God has given you if you want.

Now go through and assess your goodness and faithfulness in regards to what he has given. Circle a few things on your list which you desire to use better and use more faithfully with God and others. Then take a moment to pray God's Spirit to work those things in your soul and help you live it out in your daily life.

"Well done thou good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little, I will set you over much. Enter into the Joy of your master." - The Master's Joy be upon us all.

Thank You - The Kratz, Ressler, and Garrtson families thank you for your prayers and cards during Bill Kratz's illness and following his death. Bill and the whole family truly know comfort and strength from God - your prayers were felt.
